Name of Employer: Interac North Co. Ltd.
Full Address: Dai 2 Odori Building 6F, Chuodori 1-11-17, Morioka-shi 020-0021
Job Title: Assistant Language Teacher (ESL Elementary School)
Period of Employment: 10 April 2017 to Present

Brief summary of work performed:

I am working as an Assistant Language Teacher (ALT) for public schools in Japan. I am teaching English to nursery students and elementary students with ages ranging from 0-12 years old. I also teach Junior High School ages ranging from 13-15 years old. I teach from Monday-Friday with utmost 5 different classes per day with 10-40 students. I use different techniques and styles in teaching and I love to incorporate songs, dances, skits and storybook reading in my classes. I eat lunch with my students everyday and also supervise and help them during cleaning time at school. I also enthusiastically play with them in between break periods. Moreover, I prepare lesson plans and materials to make the class environment enjoyable for my students. I am not just an English teacher in school but is also a dedicated professional passionate in providing quality childcare, interactive learning and a meaningful and positive experience.

Name of Employer: Department of Education-Ilocos Norte Division
Full Address: Pallas Integrated School, Vintar, Ilocos Norte Philippines
Job Title: Secondary School English Teacher
Period of Employment: 15 May 2013 to 2 January 2, 2017

Brief summary of work performed:

I was an English teacher in a public Junior High School. I taught Literature and Grammar and Language to grades eight, nine and 10 whose ages are 12 to 16. I taught six different classes or groups per day where each has an average class size of 45 students. I spent six hours in a day teaching from 7:30 in the morning up to 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon. The regular class schedule runs from Monday to Friday. I regularly conducted a writing-training for our school's campus journalists every Saturday since I was designated as School Paper adviser since 2013. I have been joining Press Conferences as coach to winning student-writers reaching up to the National level. I am also one of the advisers of the English Club. Preparing fun and engaging activities has been my expertise.

I was the Journalism Coordinator of our school thus responsible for holding active roles in our division especially in Writing trainings, seminars and workshops related to innovations in teaching English. I was a winning coach in feature, news and sports writing, School Publication Adviser in-charge of editing/lay-outing and as a consultant of the paper.

Name of Employer: Saint James Academy
Full Address: Pasauquin, Ilocos Norte, Philippines
Job Title: Secondary School English Teacher
Period of Employment: 28 May 2012 to 30 June 2013

Brief summary of work performed:

I used to teach four different English subjects to Junior High School students in the Philippines. I taught Philippine Literature and Basic Mechanics of Grammar to grade 7 students, and Asian Literatures and Mechanics of Writing to grade 8 students. English-American Literatures is what I taught to grade 9 students and World Literatures to grade 10 students. Aside from teaching the English subjects, I even shared my knowledge to grade 10 students the basics of Economics, social studies as my additional subject. I was one of the advisers of the English club who prepare fun and engaging activities like the English Olympics and English Encampment. I was one of the advisers of the Journalists' Club, a club responsible for the publication of the school newspaper.

Socially, I used to host school programs and special gatherings like debut, marriage reception and birthdays. These activities helped me a lot in the development of my communication skills.
