Profile

I am Michelle I. Sagun. I was born in the Province of Nueva Ecija, Philippines on the 17th of November 1985. I'm a registered nurse bringing you quality healthcare. I am well-experienced in clinical nursing from my OJT, and taking care of the elderly with multiple complications because of my parents. I've been taking care of them since 2012. Moreover, I also have effective teamwork skills which can help me contribute to and assist my co-workers. Lastly, the attention to detail that I got from my training experience will prove useful at work in providing patients with the right diagnosis and treatment that they need.

Objective

I aim to showcase my skills nationwide to give quality health care without any bias. I believe that anyone is deserving of quality healthcare like everyone else in this world.
