

JEANETTE R. CASTAÑEDA, RN, CNN, MSN
127A Bonifacio Street Centro 6, Tuguegarao City Philippines
Email: jeanette.ramos218@gmail.com
Mobile Phone: +639159093269

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS:

- Registered Nurse, Licensed by the Professional Regulation Commission of the Philippines with license number of 0547719
- Licensed Renal Nurse in the Philippines with license number

SUMMARY OF SKILLS AND COMPETENCIES:

- 6 years Charged Nurse in Hemodialysis unit at Cagayan Valley Medical Center a tertiary, teaching, training and research medical center with 1000 bed capacity
- 4 years Staff nurse at Cagayan Valley Medical Center a tertiary, teaching, training and research medical center with 1000 bed capacity
- 1 year Volunteer Nurse in Cagayan Valley Medical Center
- With Formal training in Hemodialysis by B- Braun Avitum
- Excellent assessment, critical thinking, interpersonal and communication skills
- Strong work ethics, adaptable, focused, respectful, motivated, friendly and patient listener
- Excellent attendance, punctuality and great work record
- Comfortable and proficient in the use of computers

EDUCATION:

- Master's in Adult Health Nursing, Saint Louis University, Philippines 2011
- Bachelor of Science in Nursing, Saint Paul University of the Philippines 2008

RELEVANT WORK EXPERIENCE:

Cagayan Valley Medical Center (CVMC) Senior Nurse March 2016- Present
Cagayan Valley Medical Center (CVMC) Staff Nurse July 2011- March 2016
Cagayan Valley Medical Center (CVMC) Volunteer Nurse July 2010- July 2011

GENERAL NURSING FUNCTION FOR HEMODIALYSIS NURSE

- Performs nursing procedures using strict aseptic technique
- Monitors vital signs during the entire treatment duration
- Assist physician in temporary access insertion for hemodialysis use
- Executes and carries out doctors orders
- Enters the names of new patients on the Philippines renal disease registry logbook
- Accommodates patient for emergency dialysis
- Performs after care of the dialysis machines and the entire unit

SPECIFIC NURSING FUNCTIONS FOR HEMODIALYSIS NURSE

Pre Dialysis

- Explain the procedure to the patient and significant others for them to be aware about the treatment therapy and what to expect.
- Assess patients level of consciousness, physical and mental condition.
- Observes, assess, takes records and report symptoms and condition of patient such as bi pedal edema, facial edema, peri orbital edema ascites, crackles , hypotension, hypertension body weakness and fever
- Obtain patients pre dialysis weight using a weighing scale
- Record baseline vital signs prior starting the procedure

Intra Dialysis

- Performs correct priming of bloodlines and dialyzer
- Obtain access for hemodialysis, inserting arterial needle and venous needle to the arteriovenous fistula or graft aseptically
- Checking and obtaining the patency of arterial and venous port of temporary access such as femoral, intrajugular and subclavian catheters.
- Hook to hemodialysis machine aseptically
- Monitor and records vital signs during the procedure and and observe for complications.
- Monitor untoward sign and symptoms and hemodialysis complications such as hypotension, muscle cramps, disequilibrium syndrome, nausea and vomiting, headache, chest pain, hypertension.
- Monitor technical complications such as power failure, hemolysis, clotting, blood leak, air embolism, presence of air in the bloodlines and dialyzer reactions.
- Relay abnormal in vital signs during the treatment especially episodes of hypothermia, hyperthermia, bradycardia, tachycardia, tachypnea, bradypnea, hypotension and hypertension.
- Administers emergency medications such as anti-hypertensive drugs and inotropes through intravenous line or orally, as ordered by the physician.
- Checks and maintains patency of the blood circuit including the pressure monitor as (arterial, venous and transmembrane pressure).
- Administers blood components such as packed red blood cell and platelet through the use of blood transfusion set as ordered by the physician.
- Accurately record patient pertinent data and keep a file of significant documents in the unit such as monitoring sheets, charts, and registry logbooks.

Post Dialysis

- Remove arteriovenous fistula while observing strict aseptic technique and properly disregard the needle in a container for sharp objects.
- Educates patient together with the significant others on arteriovenous fistula, graft and catheter care.
- Monitors and records post dialysis vital signs and weight.
- Provide learning guidelines concerning diet modification and fluid restriction.
- Arrange for the follow up schedule of the patient as ordered by the attending physician.

PERSONAL INFORMATION:

- NAME : JEANETTE R. CASTAÑEDA
 - AGE : 34
 - BIRTHDATE : DECEMBER 26, 1987
 - CIVIL STATUS : MARRIED
 - RELIGION : ROMAN CATHOLIC
 - NATIONALITY : FILIPINO
 - HEIGHT : 5' 3"
 - WEIGHT : 60 KG
 - Language Spoken: English, Tagalog, Ilokano
-

I hereby certify that the above information are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

JEANETTE R. CASTAÑEDA RN, CNN, MSN
(Applicant)