I am a hard-working, dedicated and passionate in my work. I've been in my present job in teaching for 13 years already and still counting. I was also able to bring pride and honor by bringing awards and recognition for our school and to the division as well, by engaging in various academic and skills competition as coach/mentor. I am understanding, considerate and have a long stretch of patience for my students/pupils. I am capable of teaching vocabulary and comprehension development, phonics, grammar and reasoning.
