

PROFILE

Versatile professional adept at leadership and operations, exemplified by a year of impactful leadership as an Officer in Charge at Western Union, a globally recognized financial services institution. Possessing a teaching license, I am skilled in effective communication and cultivating growth. As a mother of two, I offer a nurturing approach combined with adaptability. My role as a trained healthcare provider not only underscores my commitment to holistic well-being but equips me with essential skills for comprehensive caregiving. Eager to contribute this diverse skill set to a caregiving role abroad, delivering compassionate care that makes a difference.
