TEACHER

Dedicated and experienced educator with nearly 5 years of teaching expertise across diverse subjects including social studies, language, values, mathematics, ICT, technology, and livelihood education. Adept at creating engaging and inclusive learning environments, I am passionate about fostering a love for learning while instilling critical thinking and practical skills in students. I am seeking a dynamic teaching position where I can leverage my comprehensive educational background to inspire and guide students towards academic success, personal growth, and a lifelong appreciation for knowledge.
