PROFILE

I'm a quick, passionate learner with a curious mind, hardworking, full of questions, and a responsible and reliable team member. I have always been passionate about arts and design and contemplate theories, concepts, and ideas of spaces, how and why certain things work and what does not, and to unravel the mysteries of good architecture.

Through this Opportunity, I'm looking to push my abilities, and gain more insights into this vast field. I would like to gain the most knowledge and grow with the company during this period.
