Personal statement

Hi, I am Maridel Solatre, but they call me Del as my nickname. I was raised in one of the most beautiful province here in the Philippines. As I grow up I really dreamed of becoming an educator and I am thankful to God for giving me the opportunity to fulfill my dream. I like to expand my knowledge and impart knowledge to every student I will handle that is why I am interested in coming yo your country bot only to teach but also to gain knowledge and understanding of your culture.

Hobbies

Being a teacher is tiring yet fulfilling job but I have my owns ways to ease that kind of feeling by reading books and watching television, especially dramas from other countries that depicts their culture and manners

Employment Requirements

As I was browsing the internet for the job I want to apply to I was considering a high salary because this way I can help my family in their financial needs. In terms of location, I am willing to be deployed in provinces as long as it guarantees my safety and I would probably teach elementary students since i was a graduate of Bachelor in Elementary education and based on my teaching experience.
